We are working in partnership with a leading legal enterprise that enables us to offer this service to our clients at a significantly lower cost than the traditional law firm route.

Whatever your legal issues are, we can assist you with a formal legal opinion that will provide you with the basis for resisting or initiating a legal action. Each opinion will be provided by an expert Barrister, practising in the field of your legal need and all our Barristers are fully qualified, regulated and covered by full professional indemnity insurance for complete piece of mind.

This option can save you significant time and money in getting quickly to the legal essence of what your problem is and what your options are.
